How to Fulfil an NHS Prescription for a Heelift Glide Heel Protector Device

Community Pharmacy and Dispensing Doctors

The Heelift Glide range of heel protector medical devices was listed in the Drug Tariff for England and Wales from July 1st 2023 and also the Drug Tariffs for Scotland and Northern Ireland. This means that these devices can now be prescribed in Primary Care by a GP or suitable Health Care Professional on an NHS Prescription and be dispensed by either a community pharmacy or dispensing doctor practice directly to the patient.

If you receive an NHS Prescription for a Heelift Glide device, you will need to order it directly from us until we appoint a distributor. The process is quick and easy, and we will send to you via courier or Royal Mail for next day delivery. We will set you up with an account straight away so that there is no delay in supplying to your patient.

To order directly from us you will need to either email orders@mooringsmediquip.com or can ring our order line directly on 028 2563 2777.

You will need to supply us with the order code for the device to receive the correct size for your patient:

Heelift order codes for the Glide device are:
